COUNCIL OF ESTONIAN SOCIETIES IN AUSTRALIA

2017 ANNUAL APPEAL – Council of Estonian Societies in Australia

Each year the Council of Estonian Societies in Australia carries out an Appeal for funds to support the activities of various Estonian organisations such as the Estonian Newspaper “Meie Kodu”, Youth Summer Camp Sõrve, Estonian Archives in Australia, the teaching of Estonian language, Adelaide Newsletter “Virgats” and others. The total financial support given to these organisations was approximately $20,000.

Last year’s appeal brought in just over $9,000 with generous contributions from our Estonian community as well as the $100 club campaign on Facebook.

This Appeal by the Council has a very important role, as without donations by Estonians and their friends the work of the Estonian organisations in Australia would be greatly reduced or impossible. Please be generous with your donations and take this opportunity to help keep Estonian culture and language alive in Australia.

Cheques/Money Orders to be made out to “Council of Estonian Societies in Australia” and posted to AESL treasurer Aino Matwisyk 60 Warwick Road, Merrylands NSW 2160.

For your convenience, it is possible to transfer donations directly to our Commonwealth Bank account 062 233 10062870. Please add your name in the “description on recipient's statement”.

All donors’ names and sums donated will be listed in the “Meie Kodu” newspaper, unless one chooses to remain anonymous. The appeal will close on Estonian Re-independence Day August 20, 2017.

Thanking you in advance
